

Fashions Spark Autumn Social Scene

Evening of Fashion

St. Theresa and St. Mary Magdalen Guilds of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will sponsor an "Evening in Fashion" Thursday, Oct. 19, at Bullock's Del Amo dining room. A dessert at 7 will be followed by the fashion parade. A study in the popular black and white for fall, in a jungle setting, is staged by Mrs. Keith Biscell, left, and daughters, Lori, 5, and talking to the white monkey is Lisa, 3. Mmes. Adam Krauszer and K. Pischel are in charge of arrangements for the event, to which the public is invited. Tickets may be secured by calling the St. Andrew's Church office.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Needlework Guild

Ingathering at Toberman

Peninsula Volunteers of Needlework Guild of America will hold its annual fall Ingathering Tuesday, Oct. 17, at 9 a.m. at the Toberman Settlement House in San Pedro.

At this time the big boxes of sparkling new clothing, bedding and baby supplies will be spread out on tables and allocated to the 13 agencies that are helped by the Needlework Guild. They include Assistance League of San Pedro, Barton High School, Harlan Shoemaker School, Harbor General Hospital, Hawaiian Avenue School, Toberman Settlement House, Sandpiper Shoe Fund, Salvation Army, Visiting Nurses Association, Neighborhood Youth Association, San Pedro Community Hospital, Los Angeles Public Health and the Harbor Area Retarded Children's Foundation. The next Needlework Guild occasion is the Tally Luncheon, a social get-together, when members are given a report of the final count of items provided and dollars realized by the year's work.

The Tally Luncheon will be held Oct. 24 at La Venta Inn. A social hour, with punch bowls in the patio will be held at 11 a.m. followed by luncheon. Mrs. Robert Lande is in charge of arrangements.

Woman's Club Benefit Bridge-Luncheon Set

A salad luncheon, followed by an afternoon of cards, will be the first ways and means project for the Torrance Woman's Club on Wednesday, Oct. 18 at 12:30 p.m. at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave.

Mrs. R. A. Bingham is hostess for this affair assisted by Mrs. J. E. Stavert and Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt. Mrs. Alma Smith is in charge of tickets.

Proceeds from the luncheon, to which the public is invited, will go to the club's philanthropic and scholarship funds.

Fair of Holiday Ideas

With the 1967 Holiday Season just a few weeks away, the women of the First Christian Church are staging their Christmas Fair where they share gift and decorations ideas. Enjoying a preview showing of holiday idea items are from left, Mmes. Don Morgan, CWF president; Darrell Lanham, hospitality chairman; and Cleve Carlson, secretary.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Aid Philanthropies

Dianas Present Fashion Benefit

Fall's newest fashions, emphasizing colors, designs and fabrics, will be paraded tomorrow evening in the dining room at Bullock's Del Amo as the Redondo Beach Dianas present their annual benefit Dessert-Fashion Show at 7 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Dunn is serving as general chairman of the fashion event. Her co-chairmen are Mrs. Walt O'Briant and Mrs. George Easton.

Mrs. Dunn has announced that many philanthropies will benefit from this affair, among them Las Palmas School for Girls, Project Hope, Fairview Hospital, Scholarships, Toy Loan and many others.

For further information regarding the show or to purchase tickets, Mrs. William Tolliffe, president, may be called.

The Dianas are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, junior membership.

Fall Is In The Air

Brisk winds of the autumn season catch these Dianas as they enjoy some of the new coat and hat creations for the autumn season to be shown at their benefit Fashion Show tomorrow evening at Bullock's. Enjoying the feel of fall are from left, Mmes. Norman Merritt, provisional, William Watson, hostess and Earl Borchers, co-hostess.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Madrecitas Sets Gala Night For Husbands

"Costumes and Steaks" will be the theme of the Husbands' Night Party to be given by Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopaedic Hospital.

The fun evening will be held Saturday, Oct. 21 at Higgins brickyard.

Mrs. George T. Savage, club president, has asked members to wear costumes representing their favorite songs. During the evening, steaks will be barbecued to individual tastes by the gaily-costumed husbands.

Mrs. Charles P. McMullens, chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. John Kenny. Others on the committees are Mmes. Jack Ewing, R. W. Speich, Samuel Caramelli, Hilbert Ternstrom, William Mayhall, Garth Bower and William Theisen.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

OCTOBER 15, 1967

B-1

B&PW Club To Visit Sybil Brand Institute

Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club will hold a dinner meeting tomorrow evening at 6:30 at the Sybil Brand Institute for Women at 4500 E. City Terrace Dr., Los Angeles.

After the dinner, the club members will learn more of the workings of this modern facility for women prisoners.

Captain Ruth Johns, in charge of the Sybil Brand Institute, is chairman for the evening and has arranged the event for her fellow club members.

Since the week of Oct. 16 has been proclaimed National Business Women's Week by Governor Reagan, the meeting was planned as an apropos time to emphasize the newest ideas in dealing with women in correctional institutions.

Captain Johns is also one of the founders of the Liaison League, which is working successfully in aiding women to find a more meaningful place in society after their release.

Sharing Ideas

Christmas Fair Slated by CWF

A Christmas Fair, the mutual sharing of gift and Christmas decoration ideas, will be presented by the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church, Eldorado and Maple, on Tuesday, Oct. 24.

The doors will open at 10 a.m. and remain open until 2 p.m. A chicken salad luncheon will be served to Fair-goers. In the evening, the Fair will open at 6 p.m. and continue until 9 p.m. Homemade pie and coffee will be available.

There is no admission, however, there is a luncheon charge. The public is invited to attend.

None of the items on display will be for sale but each exhibitor will give directions and the amount of material used. Those attending are asked to bring a note book for taking down instructions.

Members of other churches have been invited to share their ideas. The men and children of the church will also display their handiwork.

Mrs. Don Morgan, CWF president, is serving as chairman of the Fair. She is being assisted by Mmes. Cleve Carlson, Darrell Lanham, Grant Jones and Lewis Simpson.

An added feature will be the paintings and wall hangings done by CWF members and their husbands.

Busy Stork Helpers

Southview B'nai B'rith Women are enthusiastically taking on another community service, "Operation Stork," which is being conducted in conjunction for the national March-of-Dimes. Preparing for their stork workshop to open next month are, from left, Mrs. David Yeskin showing a baby blanket to Mrs. Joseph Sperling, who has a baby shirt, while Mrs. Joseph Zahn, chairman, checks out items and Mrs. Jules Rensen, gift wraps the packages.

(Press-Herald Photo)

B'nai B'rith Women Aid

'Operation Stork' Project

Southview Chapter, B'nai B'rith Women, are undertaking a new venture, Operation Stork, in conjunction with the Foundation of the March-of-Dimes and with the cooperation of the Los Angeles Board of Health.

This community service project is aimed at assisting mothers enrolled in the Maternal and Infant Care program held at the East Los Angeles Health Center. This program seeks to reduce the number of mentally retarded children by providing pre-natal care to expectant mothers and continuing medical supervision. "Operation Stork" will be launched at the clinic, 670 S. Ferris Ave., Los Angeles, tomorrow with a ribbon cutting ceremony.

The local chapter will begin its stork workshop in November at the home of Mrs. Joseph Zahn, when they will make and repair donated baby items. They will also make personal comfort kits for the new mothers and will collect shifts and maternity clothes. The B'nai B'rith Girls will also assist with the program by making and collecting toys for the clinic.

A Stork Shower at the home of Mrs. Zahn on Nov. 8 will officially launch the project locally.